Hustling Work on Weave Shed. Construction of the new weave shed for the Killingly Manufacturing company is being rushed with incredible rapidity and the walls are rising higher and higher every day. It is understood that the company will augment its power producing plant with electric power to be purchased from the Danielson and Plainfield Gas and Electric company, an investigation of costs having shown that it can be bought cheaper than it can be produced by the mill company and that the power furnished for service has been steady and satisfactory in every way.

Interest in Church Bicentennial. There is interest in this town in the fact that the Congregational church at Putnam Heights is to observe Sunday the bicentennial of its founding. When this church was first established, the soil it stands upon was within the limits of this town. Killingly, as a town, observed its bicentennial in 1908, so the church at Putnam Heights came into being in the very early days of Killingly's history as an organized township. The names of many of Killingly's old and well known families are associated with the history of this church and with its descendants.

Rev. Sherrod Soule of Hartford, a Killingly boy, is to be one of the speakers at the commemorative service next Sunday.

Guests on Fine Trip. Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Woodworth Return from Tour to Pacific Slope and Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Woodworth, home from their trip to California and the expositions as members of the Aetna Insurance company's special party of tourists, are enthusiastic over the scenic wonders of the west and the magnificence of this great land, many of the marvels of which they have had opportunity to see during their transcontinental journey.

Mr. Woodworth was one of the first to qualify for the trip by writing the required amount of special business and one of the few in New England who could do so, thus enabling Mrs. Woodworth to accompany him as a guest of the company.

They saw, in common with their traveling companions, not only the well known and much talked of special points and features of interest, but as well many other things of an incidental nature that were highly interesting.

Crossing into Tijuana, they were given an opportunity to see something of war-torn Mexico. Dollar bills of the state republic to the south were available everywhere for ten cents each and the tourists bought many of them for souvenirs. This town figured in a revolutionist battle about three years ago and the breakfasts thrown up in it about the town are still intact.

Of all the cities visited on the big trip Mr. Woodworth was most impressed with San Luis Obispo. He describes it as one of the finest municipalities he ever visited and declares it alone is worth a trip to the west to see.

Every accommodation for the comfort and pleasure of the tourists was provided by the company that sent out the party, which included 1,000 agents traveling in five special trains. The trip was so arranged as to insure seeing the most of the country traveled over. Two days were spent in visiting the Panama exposition and another day was spent at San Diego.

Failed to Keep Word. Maranville Promised to Motor from Springfield for Saturday's Game.

The failure of Maranville of the Boston Braves to appear here for last Saturday's baseball game, as he was advertised to do, was no fault of the local management. Frank H. Cordier, who made the arrangements with his friend Joe Connolly of the Braves to bring the famous player here, said that in a telephone conversation between Connolly and Maranville that took place Saturday forenoon, Maranville, from his home in Springfield, promised to drive his car to Putnam in time for him to appear in the game, but he failed to do so. Mr. Cordier said no more than advertise the list of players furnished him by Mr. Connolly and if Mr. Maranville failed to appear it was no fault of the local man.

STOMACH TROUBLES

To strengthen these muscles and overcome stomach troubles our druggist, G. G. Engler, Prop. of the Broadway Pharmacy, guarantees Vinol, a reliable non-secret remedy, which contains iron, to purify and enrich the blood, the medicinal extractives of fresh cod livers, without oil, and the nourishing properties of beef peptone, all combined in a delicious native wine. If you are suffering from stomach trouble, it will pay you to try it.
